What about Sunday's message challenged you, confused you, or confirmed something in you?

Look up and read the following verses:

Colossians 3:16

Romans 15:14

Pastor Phil Asked the following questions. What are your answers ?

Why is it we are much more prone to spend the necessary time to look good on the outside when we know it's our heart issues, habit issues, attitude issues, forgiveness issues that cause the storms of life to take us down?

Why is it we're willing sometimes to walk away from an environment like this (a Sunday service) and refuse to deal with what we've been confronted with and convicted by?

How different might your life have been if YOU had been in a small group in high school or college?
